

Coach in Training Pathway for Riding

Volunteer attends their RDA group, completes DBS check and provides 2 referees

RDA Group issues volunteer with green card and signs off relevant aspects where they have been trained. This individual is now an RDA volunteer

Volunteer completes two e-learning courses online

DISABILITY AWARENESS
EQUINE KNOWLEDGE

Volunteer completes two practical modules within their group

MOUNTING AND DISMOUNTING
PREPARING & ASSISTING AN RDA SESSION

Volunteer looks for Pre-Coach training that must be delivered by County, Regional Coach or Coach Developer, by visiting www.myrda.org.uk events page or by contacting their Regional Coach

County/Regional Coach or Coach Developer who is delivering the training will send volunteer a Prospective Coach information form to be filled in prior to the training

Prior to the training the County/Regional Coach or Coach Developer must see a copy of the certificates for the completed online & practical modules. These can be pictures shared via what's app, email etc or can be checked on the day of training. Online modules can be checked via contacting National Office if required.

Volunteer attends pre-coach training booked with County/Regional Coach or Coach Developer

County/Regional Coach or Coach Developer sends National Office a completed coach registration form

National Office updates database with new coach in training information

National Office sends new coach a Coach in Training Certificate and passport documents

Volunteer is now a Coach in Training and can coach under supervision

Key – Activity led by

Volunteer

Group

Regional/County
Coach

National Office